Midsummer Camp

" I say Holmes. This man is dead drunk!" " He's a Hasher, It's their summer camp this weekend and no doubt the howling in the night has come from one of thier tents, case closed Watson, let's go home"

This years midsummer camp takes the theme of ~~defectives~~ ~~defectors~~ ~~defendants~~ Detectives, and you are invited to find your way here and enjoy a weekend of trail finding, beer quaffing and field games.

On the Saturday evening we will have a carvery meal and invite you to dress in the style of your favourite Detective. For those of you who might wish to add to the fun and put on a skit, song or other entertainment there will be stage time after the meal.
